PERSIANS FIGHTING FOR LIBERAL CONSTITUTION

(By Associated Press.)
TEHERAN, July 13.—Recent events in Turkey are being repeated in Persia. The constitutionalist forces are now in possession of the greater part of Teheran which they entered this morning without encountering any organized resistance. While the leaders of the movement concentrated the attention of the royalists by demonstrations to the west, a strong body of nationalists made its way unnoticed around to the north, from which point the capture of the capital wasn't difficult. The royalists are badly situated to make further resistance. The Cossacks under command of Russian officers remain outside the city cut off from their comrades. The nationalist leader in a note to the Russian and British legations guarantees the security of life and property of foreigners, adding that nothing is demanded from the shah but a real constitution. There is much ill feeling between the Russians and the nationalists. LONDON, July 13.—A dispatch from Teheran says the nationalists attacked the Cossacks in their barracks in Artillery square for two hours this evening without succeeding in capturing the positions. TRYING TO PROVE THAW SANE

(Associated Press.)
WHITEPLAINS (N. Y.), July 13.—Evelyn Nesbit Thaw was called to the stand in the hearing today which is being given her husband, Harry K. Thaw, slayer of Stanford White, who is making a fight for liberty from Matteawan asylum. Though called by the state in an endeavor to prove that Harry Thaw was irrational, what Roger Clarke, deputy attorney general, drew from her created a favorable impression for her husband. She was excused shortly after 4 o'clock but was resubpoenaed, and will probably appear again tomorrow. Clarke tried to get the witness to admit that Thaw threatened her life, but turning appealing to the court, she repeatedly refused to answer questions. Finally Justice Mills ruled that the conversation in which the threat was supposed to have been made was confidential between the husband and wife, therefore she was privileged to refuse until the state presented proof to show that Daniel O'Reilly, the New York lawyer, present at the time, wasn't then acting counsel for both Mr. and Mrs. Thaw. This Attorney General Clarke promised to do as soon as the defense has secured the services of an alienist. Thaw will have a mental examination test held in open court. The physical examination will be held in the White Plains jail.

CONSOLIDATED PROPERTIES RESUME.
A special to the Bonanza from Goldfield states that the properties of the Goldfield Consolidated company resumed operations last evening at 6 o'clock after having suspended operations for several hours. Former Superintendent Tremholm has been replaced by Mr. Donnelly. The report was spread about that the properties would remain closed for a lengthy period, which seems to have been prematurely circulated. The only reason for the temporary suspension was internal strife concerning the superintendency of the mines. As soon as the matter was disposed of, everything went along in its usual course.

Nelson Is Badly Beaten

(By Associated Press.)
LOS ANGELES, July 13.—Ad Wolgast of Milwaukee, despite the fact that he weighed five pounds less than Battling Nelson, gave the "Battler" a thorough whipping in a ten-round bout before the Pacific Athletic club tonight. After an even first round, Wolgast had the advantage of six of the remaining rounds. The champion didn't have a single round in his favor, an even break being the best he could get. Wolgast fought the champion at his own game and beat him decisively. Nelson's face was badly marked and swollen, while Wolgast was practically unmarked. The fight was fast from start to finish.

C. M. Hobbs Is Visiting Tonopah

C. M. Hobbs, formerly general manager of the Nevada-California Power company and one of the largest stockholders in that concern, arrived in Tonopah yesterday from Bishop, California, where he has been inspecting the mammoth plant of the company. Previous to his arrival in Bishop, some two weeks ago, Mr. Hobbs and Mrs. Hobbs spent eighteen months in Europe. Mr. Hobbs paid the Bonanza office a friendly visit. He is looking hale and hearty after his long trip and though he saw much to interest him while abroad he seems to be glad to be back to the scenes of his triumphs, for it was he who originated the idea of furnishing the camps of southern Nevada with power and light over transmission lines which are among the longest in the world. For three years Mr. Hobbs personally supervised the work of construction and operation. Whatever has been the success of the company is due in no small measure to his integrity and executive ability. "Southern Nevada appears to me to be enjoying good times," said Mr. Hobbs. "While there is not the hurrah that marked the earlier days, there seems to be a more substantial and permanent character about

GEO. M'DANN IS THE MAN

GEORGE MSDANN—LOST—One light-colored leather suit case, marked W. R. A. on end, and one small light-colored grip belonging to W. R. Alberger; contents will be identified if found. Notify W. W. Keith of the Tonopah & Goldfield R. R. Co., at Goldfield, who will pay expenses.

The above advertisement appeared in the Tonopah Bonanza this morning. The grips mentioned were lost Saturday last. The police has been investigating their disappearance since the day they were stolen from the Mizpah hotel.

Yesterday it was brought to light that the man, George McDann, who is now in jail charged with attempting to rob the local postoffice, has been almost positively connected with the theft of the grips. Yesterday in an unoccupied cabin in Upper Main street the grips were found. Inquiry at the home of the owner of the cabin revealed the fact that a strange man rented the building the early part of last week, paying for the same in advance. Chief Malley believed that McDann might be the person who had rented the cabin. Acting upon that impulse he asked the owners to see the prisoner with the result that they positively identified him as one and the same person. Consequently, if the officials are unable to connect McDann with the postoffice robbery, he will have a hard time explaining away the theft of the grips.

The articles stolen contained valuable papers belonging to the Tonopah & Tidewater road. Their recovery speaks well for the energy of the local police and bestows particular commendation upon Chief Malley.
